What will I be doing in the course?

In the Preliminary and HSC courses, students will develop the linguistic and intercultural knowledge and understanding, and the speaking, listening, reading and writing skills to in communicate in Korean.

Topics studied through two interdependent perspectives, the Personal World and the Korean-Speaking Communities, provide contexts in which students develop their communication skills in Korean and their knowledge and understanding of language and culture.

Students' skills in and knowledge of Korean will be developed through tasks associated with a range of texts and text types, which reflect the topics. Students will also gain an insight into the culture and language of Korean-speaking communities through the study of a range of texts.

The course introduces students to the language and culture of contemporary Korea and gives an appreciation for other Korean speaking communities in the world. In addition to language training in the four basic skills - listening, speaking, reading and writing – various aspects of varied Korean speaking communities' society and culture will be introduced through audio and video extracts and short texts. The emphasis throughout will be on communicative skills, both oral, aural and written and students should be able to comprehend and respond with grammatical accuracy to spoken and written Korean as well as demonstrate cultural awareness.

Main topics covered

There are two prescribed topic areas: the Personal World and the Korean-Speaking Communities. The two perspectives will enable students to develop knowledge and understanding of and skills in the Korean language, linked to cultural values, attitudes and practices.

Through their study of the Personal World, students will develop their ability to use Korean to express and share ideas about experiences and activities relating to daily life and transactions in their own world.

Through their study of the Korean-Speaking Communities, students will come to inquire about and to express ideas in order to undertake activities and transactions appropriately in one or more communities where Korean is spoken.

The following are the sub topic areas:

- Family life, home and neighbourhood
- People, places and communities
- Education and work
- Friends, recreation and pastimes
- Holidays, travel and tourism
- Future plans and aspirations

Learning activities will include structured and unstructured oral exercises, grammar and vocabulary exercises, role-play activities, translation, dictation, oral presentations, listening activities using authentic online materials, and compositions. Students will make use of online resources that include practice of speaking, reading, writing and listening, and that further cultural awareness in which Korean customs, culture, and everyday life aspects are also highlighted.

Particular course requirements

Eligibility rules apply to the study of this subject. Check with your teacher or the Board's Assessment Certification Examination (ACE) Manual (Section 8.2.2.3).

How will I be assessed in the course?

Students will be expected to undertake the following types of assessment and/or exam tasks.

- Oral assessments and/or examinations: Conversation in Korean (5 minutes)
- Written assessments and/or examinations: Listening (Korean Comprehension), Reading (Korean Comprehension), Writing in Korean.

Activities, tasks and homework undertaken throughout the Year 11 and Year 12 course will better prepare students to complete the assessment components.

What should I be able to do at the end of the course?

On the completion of Korean Beginners course students should be able to:

- Understand the basic structures of the Korean language and use these in writing and in speech.
- Demonstrate a sufficient knowledge of Korean vocabulary to communicate in everyday situations.
- Recognize basic structures and vocabulary in written and spoken materials, and thus be able to read and listen to articles/news items/short stories in Korean.
- Understand and analyse aspects of Korean society and culture.
- Communicate information, ideas and opinions in Korean, in both spoken and written modes.
