

Open High School and Saturday School

Our Languages Other Than English (LOTE) Faculty will facilitate the study of languages not offered at our school as well as community languages through the New South Wales School of Languages and Saturday School.

ESL students are strongly encouraged to study their home language at The Saturday School of Community Languages.

Please note that students wishing to undertake an external studies course at The New South Wales School of Languages will be required to pay a non-refundable fee.

All language courses offered by St Marys Senior High School DO NOT require any fee payments.
